

statism

noun

01

the belief that the application of violence will result in a perfect society

02

the belief that the rights of the individual can be protected by violating rights

03

the religion of state worship and government deification

---

Define your terms

